"LEMOINE" NATURAL CHAMPAGNE, (Without Liqueur), AWARDED PRIZE MEDAL, PARIS, 1889.

THE Special Features of this Pure Champagne are:—

- 1st.—Its entire freedom from the usual sugar-candy, etc., consequently it is fresher, cleaner, and more wholesome than the Liqueured champagnes.
- 2nd.—Its delicacy, due to the first pressings only of the grapes used; the later pressings make the wine rough and coarse, and necessitate the use of liquor.
- 3rd.—Its Natural Dryness, which is not aggressive, making it more appetizing than satisfying.
- 4th.—No liquor being added, the process of re-fermenting is very rapidly effected, so avoiding the large loss of carbonic acid gas—the most valuable property of Champagne.

Champagne should always be drunk cold; but to half freeze a light, delicate wine by putting it into an ice-pail for the best part of an hour, is to destroy all its fine vinous properties.

In former years, when heavily Liqueured Champagnes were alone obtainable, a good freezing was necessary to hide the nauseous sweetness of a ten per cent. dose of sugar-candy and alcohol; but consumers now demand a wine free from unnatural sweetness or alcohol, sparkling vintage which can be taken freely at luncheon or dinner, and which will improve, rather than destroy, the appetite.

CONSPICUOUS member of chorus in "The Gondoliers"—"I would give anything if I had a musical ear."—Soprano and musical Director—"Why don't you sing?"—"Quelque?" "Certainly, that will make your ears sing." The would-be tenor thought after all he was more at home as a simple gondolier.

AN American paper reports that the little son of the Korean Chang Aikja, Mr. Yi, is dead. The child was born in Washington last October, and was the first Korean born in the United States. In honor of the city of his birth, his parents named him Yi Washington, which is the American Editor says, the Korean translation of Washington.

IN Paris, a few months ago, there was formed a "National League against Atheism." Every member of the League must engage to oppose with tongue and pen, and by every legitimate means, all forms of atheism. The League is open to any person of either sex, of any religion, and of any philosophical opinion, who affirms the existence of God.

A CORRESPONDENT writes in very strong language about what he says are the excessive charges of doctors in this colony, and uses the word robbery in reference to a special case he mentions. "We don't agree with this view, but in any case the gentleman who imagines he is a victim might modify his language and courteously refer to the alleged exorbitant bill as pillage."

A REMARKABLE domestic revolution is reported to have taken place at the Vatican. Every Italian in the service of the Pope was dismissed, and the duties of the servants in the Papal apartments, both in the ante-chamber and the interior, were transferred to foreigners. This measure, it is said, has been adopted as the result of an inquiry which showed that Signor Crispi had several secret agents among the personnel of the Vatican.

It is reported in the Official Gazette (Japanese) that during last year the number of persons attacked by infectious diseases in the Kanagawa Prefecture was 1,772, of whom 2,045 died. The statistics are classified as follows:—Cholera, 2,377 patients and 1,726 deaths; dysentery, 21 patients and 9 deaths; diphtheria, 10 patients and 78 deaths; erysipelas, 10 patients and 6 deaths; typhoid fever, 100 patients and 236 deaths; small-pox, 3 patients and no deaths.

At the Club the other night—Eminent promoter of bogus complaints, who is also desirous of shining in politics—"That confounded paper is constantly hinting, abominable lies about me," and he threw down the Hongkong Telegraph with a well simulated expression of extreme disgust. Good-natured friend in the same line of business—"Well, you know, he might say you were a liar, but what the devil do you mean?"—"Well, don't you see, he might light the cat out of the bag by telling the truth, and where would you be then?"

A FULL report of the latest phase in the celebrated Pais detention case, which occupied the attention of the Chief Justice and a special jury today, will be found in another column. The plaintiff is, of course, the owner of the Pais, who claims over $10,000 damages, and the defendant the Attorney-General, representing the Government. During the course of the hearing to-day letters were put in by the plaintiff, which show that the ship was detained for survey owing to the written allegations of Mr. T. Arnold, Secretary of the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamship Co., and Mr. E. Mackintosh, representing the China Navigation Company, to the effect that the Pais was unworthy.

OUR new sporting reporter was sent out yesterday to try and interview a certain distinguished visitor regarding his impressions of the Fancy Dress Ball at Government House. He was a long time absent, and when he did return he struck the "boss" that his conductor had been looking at the sunshin when it was redder than usual. The mission had proved a failure, the distinguished personage positively declined to be interviewed, but had politely accepted an offer to drink success to journalism—at the expense of the office.

"What was the reason of his refusing to be interviewed?" asked the Editor, "Is he travelling light?"

The "Man in the Ditch" silently pondered for a minute and then replied—"No, not that I'm aware of. I found him travelling down the Race-course in Kennedy's new 'box'."

THE Hon. Secretary of the Hongkong C. C. desires us to announce that as there will be no cricket tomorrow, the Committee will be glad if lawn-tennis players will take advantage of the afternoon and get on with the tie.

It is reported that the Japanese military authorities intend to increase the army to 100,000 men—the increase to be made during the next two years. This is in consequence of instructions issued by the Emperor to Count Oyama, Minister for War.

It is notified by the Hon. Secretary (Mr. R. L. Yau) that the Choral Society has had to postpone the performance of "The Gondoliers" which was advertised for to-morrow evening. This is owing, it is presumed, to the illness of one of the principal members. The date of the next performance has not yet been decided on, but due notice will be given as soon as practicable.

"THERE" is an Act operative in the Dominion of Canada which teetotalers may be able to utilize to their advantage. This is a Statute under which the wife of an habitual drunkard can hold a liquor-seller responsible for damages if he supplies her husband with liquor after being notified not to do so. A Mrs. Kirby, who sued a liquor-seller under this Act, has been awarded, in the Supreme Court, at Montreal, $100 on account of the injury done to her and her family as a result of the drink supplied to her husband.

At a general meeting of shareholders of the Yokohama Stock Exchange, held in January last, it was decided to abolish the institution, and Messrs. Hara, Mogi, and others were elected as a committee to settle all business connected therewith, while the buildings will be sold by public auction. A project has been set on foot by the lending merchants of Yokohama to establish a new institution for the regular sale and purchase of silk, and the Yokohama Herald, the buildings will probably be used for that purpose. What about the embryonic Hongkong Exchange, which has been strangled in its infancy, or was it still-born?

FOR the past week that mythical individual popularly known as the Clerk of the Weather has cast a gloom over Hongkong and strictly forbidden old Sol to show himself for a single moment until this forenoon. The weather, in fact, has been dull and dreary in the extreme, and the thermometer has been down as low as 42° Fahrenheit; which is very trying after a Hongkong summer. Our superstitious friends of the Confucian order say that this exceptional cold is the forerunner of a great change in the affairs of this Colony for the better. As things can't well be much worse, the Celestial prophets will probably "score" this time.

WE read that from the commencement of the tea season to the 31st of January, 1890, the total quantity of tea which was sold to foreign firms at Yokohama were 21,685,000 kis (one kis is 110 lbs avoirdupois) and 21,811,000 kis respectively. The quantity of tea that remained in stock at Yokohama at the end of last month was 106,000 kis, and that during last month the value of articles (consisting of cotton yarns, piece goods, sugar, kerosene, &c.), purchased by Japanese merchants at Yokohama, was $1,571,280, and of articles (consisting of raw silk, waste silk, and tea) sold to foreign firms $2,765,217, showing an excess of $1,193,937 on the side of exports.

THE German census of December 1st gave the following results as to the population: Berlin, 1,547,485; Dresden, 367,000; Munich, 340,000; Cologne, 282,000; Hamburg, 500,000; Magdeburg, 202,000; Frankfurt, 179,000; Strasbourg, 135,000; Leipzig, which now has 205,000 inhabitants, will be enlarging its limits on January 1st, by adding 372,000, and will be the third largest city in Germany. Holland had 2,086 inhabitants, 85 more than it had just ten years ago. The population of Berlin shows an increase of 452,000 in the last ten years, and 259,000 in the last five years. The average annual increase for the last five years is about 52,000. The census-takers found in Elbing a man 49 years old with twenty-two children.

It appears from the returns of the Registrar-General that the number of religious denominations in England and Wales is at the present time 251. Some of the names are not very familiar to the general ear, as "The Army of the King's Own," "The Loving Brethren," "The Congregation of the Son of the Covenant," "The Dependents," "The Glasites," "King Jesus's Army," and "The Open Brethren." Worshipers of Mahomet figure both under the titles of "Moslems" and "Church of Islam." It appears from the list that "Believers in Joaze's Southcott" still assemble for worship. Altogether the number of places certified and recorded on November 1st last, was 26,799, an increase of 431 over those of last year.

THE question of arranging a race for the "America" Cup is being debated in New York. In view of Lieut. Hens's utterances a strong feeling has grown up in New York in favour of changing the conditions of the deed of gift in the sense desired by British yachtsmen, whereby more competent persons (say one correspondent) think that the New York Club has power to do so. Commodore Geary is opposed to any concessions, and maintains that the club is powerless to act, as the donors of the cup are now dead, and have left no provisions empowering the club to alter the terms of the deed. He thinks that British yachtsmen may protest for a while, but they will ultimately yield on the point and then renew their efforts to gain the trophy. Other Englishmen will not enter into a contest unless the deed is altered.

At the Police Court this morning, Mr. A. G. Wise on the Bench, Cheung Joo, a ricksha coolie, was charged as follows:—

(a) "Regina, on the complaint of Father Benetti, of the Roman Catholic Cathedral, charges the defendant with wilfully driving a ricksha, whereby the complainant sustained severe injuries to his thigh on the 10th instant."

(b) "With driving a licensed vehicle, No. 91, for hire, and not being a licensed coolie, on the 10th and 12th instants."

The Reverend Father Benetti, of the Roman Catholic Cathedral, who doubtless has read about a Nazarene known as Jesus Christ, being in hospital, the first charge against the hapless Chinese coolie was not proceeded with, the magistrate considering himself with decency that the accused might be allowed his liberty if he were put up as security for his appearance in the course of eight-and-forty hours. The second charge was then dealt with. The defendant admitted being without a license and was fined $2, with the alternative of 10 days' hard labour. He went "inside." There are great numbers of wealthy Chinese philanthropists in Hongkong who profess to take a liberally interest in the welfare of their less fortunate fellow-countrymen. Here is a golden opportunity for them to show that they are not hypocrites. Let them release the coolie and induce Dr. Ho—Kai to appear for him at the Magistracy when the attempt is made by a priest, a follower of saintly St. Peter, to make a good-bird of a man whose crime appears to have been either want of sufficient strength or skill to prevent his ricksha, with the portly form of Padre Benetti inside, from taking charge and making away with him.

THE departure of the Pacific Mail Co.'s steamer City of Peking is postponed to Sunday, the 15th inst., at daylight.

THE Superintendent of the I. & O. S. N. Co. informs us that the Company's steamer Verona left Nagasaki for this port at 5.30 p.m. yesterday.

THUS the Hogo News—Our shipping reports have been accustomed for some years to board ships entering the port for the purpose of obtaining information respecting them. This has been done with merchant vessels and men-of-war of all nationalities, and has been invariably treated with courtesy. It remained for some of the officers of the Valluno, the Italian man-of-war which entered yesterday (January 31st) to have with the boorishness of Wilted-cup rowdies. Not only was the reporter pushed roughly off the gangway, but on entering his boat a bucket of water was thrown over him. We are sure that this piece of gross incivility has only to be brought to the notice of the commander to make its repetition impossible.

WE are informed that at a general meeting of the shareholders of the Trust & Loan Company of China, Japan, and the Straits, Limited, held yesterday in London, a dividend for the year was declared at the rate of 4 shillings per share on ordinary shares, and 3 shillings on Founders' shares. It was also decided to increase the capital by £1,000,000, to be issued at a premium of 2 shillings per share. A resolution was passed to change the name of the Company to "The Bank of China, Japan, and the Straits, Limited," but this requires confirmation at a second meeting to be held on the 2nd March. We understand that the Chairman of the Company stated at the general meeting that the change of name did not imply any alteration in the nature of the Company's business, and that there was no intention of its becoming an exchange bank, the name simply being taken to prevent its adoption by others.

THERE is trouble in the Y.M.C.A. camp in Melbourne. Certain imported members wrote, complaining that Secretary Southwell does not sufficiently exert himself on their behalf and ignores the interests of new arrivals when they come into conflict with those of the native article. The Secretary replied that he was not a "predilection for mashers." New-comers bring letters of introduction from the old country expect to be provided with situations right off the reel. They arrive in large numbers and are mainly composed of clerks and drapers' assistants, of which Victoria has more than enough for its requirements already. There is no coolness shown to these gentry, whose main complaint is that the giving of free meals is unduly limited. As a final retort, Mr. S. concludes with the remark that "there is a ring of hearties about the Association which makes every one feel at home if it is possible for him to do so." The whole affair, remarks the Bulletin, throws a lurid light on the functions and inner life of the time-kill institution.

THERE is great interest in Tokyo about the suit brought by the Electric Light Company against Mr. Soné. The novel character of the pleading astonishes experts. It is difficult even to ascertain against whom the action is laid; that is to say, whether against Mr. Soné, as a private individual, or against Mr. Soné, Chief Secretary of the House of Representatives. If the former, the difficulty arises that Mr. Soné merely expressed an opinion about the origin of the fire, and did not attribute carelessness or any other shortcoming to the Electric Light Company. If the latter, then it would appear that Mr. Soné cannot be called to account, since his statements in the House are privileged. Further, careful examination of the language of the pleading reveals the fact that the allegation of actual injury is made. It is merely stated that the results threaten to be injurious to the Company. The Japanese law, says the Daily Mail, does not assume injury in case of libel. The complainant is required to prove that he has suffered. Thus from many points of view people are perplexed to understand how the suit, as now preferred, can be entertained.

A DOCTOR in Montreal who "thinks he has received a divine call," says, in an exchange, been the means of disturbing the home circle of a man in that city, together with his wife and six daughters, recently fell ill of small-pox. The doctor cured them all, and the six sisters out of thankfulness manifested a desire to become nuns, and appealed to the medico for assistance in the carrying out of their wish. He closed with the idea at once, made his own house into a sanatorium, and provided stakes, chains, and scoldhags. The rest of the tale reads somewhat like that of the "Prisoner of Chillon," for we learn that "the six sisters undergo severe penance, and are tied occasionally to a pillar with chains, with a crown of thorns and other instruments of discipline. Two or three times a week they whip themselves on the bare skin. They sleep separate cells, their bed being a coffin, with no other bedding but a pall. The doctor's own bed is also a coffin, and his pillow a piece of wood, the only covering being a white sheet, and under red cross in the middle." To add to the charm of the narrative the old people do the house-work while their promising offspring "do penance." The road to heaven is surely twice as rough as that to Hades, and fully three times as nasty.

THERE will be a game of football, Club v. The Garrison, under Association rules, at Happy Valley to-morrow afternoon, play to commence punctually at 4.15 p.m. The match promises to be a very interesting one, but on paper the Garrison team should win. The following are the teams:—

SUPREME COURT.

IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.

(Before Sir James Russell, Chief Justice, and a Special Jury.)

February 13th.

TOK KEE Y. THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

This was an action by the plaintiff to recover damages for the wrongful detention on two occasions of the steamer Pais.

The defendant admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

The defendant also admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

The defendant also admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

The defendant also admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

The defendant also admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

The defendant also admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

The defendant also admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

The defendant also admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

The defendant also admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

The defendant also admitted that the Pais was detained on the 16th day of February, 1889, and on the 22nd day of November, 1889, for seven days, and that the plaintiff was entitled to recover damages for the wrongful detention of the steamer Pais for seven days.

Mr. E. Robinson, instructed by Messrs. Caldwell and Wilkinson, for the plaintiff, and the Attorney-General (Mr. W. M. Goodman) appeared in person. Mr. J. J. Francis, Q.C., instructed by Messrs. Wotton and Deacon, watched the case on behalf of the Hongkong, Canton, and Macao Steamship Company.

The special jurors were:—Messrs. S. W. Coxon, H. W. Dick, R. K. Leigh, G. Sharpe, A. Shelton Hooper, E. W. Mitchell, and G. Stewart.

Mr. Robinson, in opening the case, said the plaintiff claimed damages against the government for the wrongful detention on two occasions, of the steamer Pais. The pleadings were as follows:—

1. The claimant is a merchant carrying on business at No. 75, Praya Central, in Hongkong, and was during and has continued to be since November

Intimations.

DOCTOR CLERTAN'S SANDAL PEARLS

SANDAL PEARLS which are highly approved by the Parisian Academy of Medicine, contain the pure essence of Sandal, enclosed in a thin transparent gelatine envelope which is perfectly soluble and digestible. They possess a proved efficacy in cases of inflammation, Scaldings, catarrhs and contagious discharges. Dr. Clertan's Sandal pearls cure all these inconveniences whether recent or chronic, in two or three days, without leaving any ill effects. They have no odour, nor do they in any way affect the digestive organs, which so frequently occurs with all similar preparations.

Every bottle, is genuine, bears Dr. CLERTAN'S signature.

See that the label on each bottle bears the address, 19, rue Jacob, Paris. Sold by all chemists.
